For Immediate Release

The Tectonic Collection by Ray Booth® Product Guide

April 22, 2025 - High Point, North Carolina — Architectural and Interior Designer Ray Booth® will debut his fourth furniture collection at the Spring 2025 International Home Furnishings Market in High Point, NC in partnership with Hickory Chair. Following the success of his previous collections, the latest Ray Booth x Hickory Chair collection, Tectonic, moves into a lighter, more relaxed space while retaining his signature architectural refinement and exceptional craftsmanship. Inspired by the art and science of construction, Tectonic explores how materials, structure, and design come together to express comfort, beauty, and style.
